

ACHARYA INSTITUTE OF GRADUATE STUDIES

(NAAC Re-Accredited 'A' Grade & Affiliated to Bengaluru City University)

Soladevanahalli, Bengaluru-560107

NAME OF THE PROGRAM: BACHELOR OF ARTS IN PSYCHOLOGY, JOURNALISM & OPTIONAL ENGLISH

COURSE OUTCOMES (CO'S)

BA: I semester

Subject name: INTRODUCTION TO CRIMINOLOGY

After the completion of the Course, the students will be able to:

- Understand the basic Meaning, Definition and Objectives of Crime and Criminology. Criminology with other Social Sciences.
- Understand the concept of Crime which differentiated from sin, vice, anti-social behavior, and abnormal activities.
- Understand the Criminals as a person and Corporate Person, Classification of criminals based on the crimes they commit.
- Understand the Police statistics, Criminal Court statistics, and Prison, Probation and Aftercare Statistics
- Understand the recent development in Criminology with new crimes concept. Interpretation of Criminalization and Decriminalization of Conventional Crimes and Understand the concept of Victim Centered Criminology.

Subject name: BASIC PSYCHOLOGICAL PROCESSES – I

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

1. Summarize the history and origins of Psychology and early schools of thought.
2. Conceptualize the aspects of learning and the components involved in learning.
3. Apply the models of memory into improving one's own memory.
4. Critically evaluate the theories of intelligence and tools used to measure intelligence.
5. Develop insight into human motivation and align their behavior with their goals.

Subject name: Fundamentals of Sociology (SOC 101)

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

1. Students will understand the origin of concept sociology
2. Students will understand its scientific nature, and its relationship with other social sciences and its branches.
3. Students will understand the basic concepts of social structure, function, values, role, and status.
4. Students will understand about social control agencies and their influences and culture
5. Students will understand its elements and socialization processes.

BA: II semester

Sub: FORENSIC SCIENCE

After studying this course, students will be able to:

- Understand the origin, meaning definition of Forensic Science and Its importance in Criminal Justice System.
- Understand the importance of Physical Clues in Crime Investigation.
- Understand the importance of Fingerprints in Crime Investigation and how Fingerprints are remaining unique than other physical clues in crime investigation.
- Understand the medico legal importance of Body fluids and other evidences in crime investigation
- Understand the different branches in forensic science laboratory and their functions in central and state level.

Subject name: BASIC PSYCHOLOGICAL PROCESSES – II

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

1. To understand different processes in terms of biological, cognitive processes and their impact on behavior.
2. Conceptualize the role of biological bases in human behavior.
3. Understand sensory processes and explain the capabilities and limitations of sensory processes.
4. Critically evaluate the theories of personality and tools used to measure behavior.
5. Gain insight into complex human emotional states and analyse the experience of self in day to day life.

Subject name: Social Institution and Social Change (SOC 151)

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

1. Understand various social institutions like marriage, family, kinship, religion and education and their important role in the society.
2. Students will understand about the relevance of social institutions
3. Students will understand about the dynamics of religion
4. Learn how social institutions guide members from birth to death.
5. Students will understand about the process of social change and its factors

BA: III semester

Subject name: POLICE SCIENCE

After studying this course, students will be able to:

- Understand the origin and development of Police in England and India, Role of Police in Indian Constitution, State Police Organizations and Hierarchy structure of police.
- Understand the Police Powers and Duties
- Understand the different methods of Police Investigations and Interrogations with new techniques.
- Understand the stages of Investigation and get expose to legal terms.
- Understand the preventive methods using technology to prevent crimes in Society/locality.

Subject name: DEVELOPMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY

By the end of the course, students will be able to

1. Comprehend the fundamentals of developmental psychology, its objectives, scope, and principles.
2. Identify & illustrate the major issues, stages, and milestones of human development and connect it with real world scenarios.
3. Evaluate the essence, strengths and weaknesses of major theories of lifespan development
4. Contemplate the influence of biological, cognitive, socio-emotional and environmental factors on different domains of development throughout the lifespan.

Subject name: Study of Indian Society (Rural and Urban) (SOC 201)

1. Students will get sociological understanding of Rural and Urban Society
2. Students will be acquainted with concepts of Social Organization
3. Students will understand the structure of Village community and problems of it.
4. Understand urban infrastructure in sociological view point
5. Understand the relativeness of rural and urban society and differences

BA: IV semester

Subject name: CRIMINAL LAW AND JURISPRUDENCE

After studying this course, students will be able to:

1. Understand the concept of criminal law and scientific study of law(Jurisprudence), Purpose of Studying criminal law, why do we need law? What are the problems if we don't have proper governing principles?
2. In-depth study of Indian Penal Code with understanding its origin and development and punishments.
3. Understand different types of crimes against body and property.
4. Understand the Constitution Provision regarding Cr.P.C, Functionaries under the code.
5. Understand and get knowledge about Indian Evidence Act and legal terms like Admission, Confession; opinion of Experts; Burden of Proof; Cross Examination; and Re-examination.

Subject name: SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY

By the end of the course, students will be able to

1. Identify and integrate major theories and principles in individual behavior in society.
2. Promotes the ability to formulate and hypothesis solution to day to day problems in life and society.
3. Helps students to adapt to changing society with balanced mindset.
4. Students can create various models for sustainable leadership and group management; to overcome discrimination and bullying.
5. Enhances the skills and abilities to manage adversities in life and society.

Subject name: Crime and Society (SOC 251)

1. Understand the changing profile of crime in society.
2. Equip students with emerging perspectives of causation.
3. Gain a theoretical knowledge of crime.
4. Understand recent corrective programmes about crime.
5. Be sensitised about the causes and consequences of crime.

BA: V semester

Subject name: THEORIES OF CRIME – CRI 5.1

After studying this course, students will be able to:

1. Understand the different schools of Criminology.
2. Understand the various theories in Positivism in criminology.
3. Understand the various theories in Sociological Theories.
4. Understand the various theories in Social Process Theories
5. Understand the radical approach in development of Radical Criminology.

Subject name: FORENSIC MEDICINE - CRI 5.2

After studying this course, students will be able to:

1. Understand the medical importance in crime prevention and role of medical expert in forensic medicine.
2. Understand different types of wounds and Injuries.
3. Understand the cause of death, Changes after death, Medico-legal importance of hanging, strangulation and drowning.
4. Understand the importance of body fluids and DNA in forensic medicine.
5. Understand toxicology, classification of toxics, signs, symptoms and medico legal importance and preventive measures.
6. Field Work: Visits to different Law enforcement agencies or organizations or Government/ Non-Government Institutes to study and understand their work functioning.

Subject name: ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY - V

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

1. Analyze the criteria of abnormality and differentiate from normality.
2. Develop the skills of identifying the characteristics, causes and management for disorders.
3. To focus on different approaches of dealing with mental health concerns.
4. To choose appropriate mental health provisions and to be familiar with the respective legal implications.

Subject name: COUNSELING PSYCHOLOGY - V

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

1. Explain the evolution of counselling trends and be able to differentiate and choose appropriately from amongst the different approaches to counselling and gain an insight into personality development.
2. Work through each step of counselling process and deal with the client issues.
3. Development of personal characteristics suitable for the profession of counselling which will also contribute to personal growth and development.

Subject name: INDUSTRIAL – ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY - V

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate fundamental knowledge about history and various related fields of I/O Psychology along with the scope of the field.
2. Comprehend the concept of Job analysis and examine various selection procedures with special emphasis on psychological testing.
3. Students will demonstrate a basic understanding of the effect of various conditions like attitudes, motivation on productivity.
4. Students will develop reasoning to apply organizational theories to specific organizational situations.

Subject name: Sociological Thought (SOC 301)

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

1. To understand the origin of sociology.
2. To gain knowledge about classical contribution in sociology
3. To know the theoretical foundations of sociology
4. To know the theoretical foundations of sociology
5. To develop critical thinking and analytical ability to interpret the social scenario

Subject name: Sociology of Media and Mass Communication (SOC 302)

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

1. To learn role of media in society
2. To prepare people for journalism as career
3. To learn pros and media projections
4. To understand media as catalyst of social change
5. To understand media as catalyst of social change

Subject name: Industrial Sociology (SOC 303)

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

1. To understand industry, labour and human relations
2. To familiarised with actual problems of industry
3. To impart knowledge on management and organisation and workers
4. To study industrial society and workers
5. To understand the bearing of society

Subject name: VICTIMOLOGY - CRI 6.1

After studying this course, students will be able to:

- To understand victimology, their problems and different theories on Victims.
- Role of different organizations national and International concern for victims of crimes.
- Understand the different patterns of Victimization.
- Understand about victim compensation.
- Understand victim assistance where when how and who will get assistance.

Subject name: CORRECTIONAL ADMINISTRATION - CRI 6.2

After studying this course, students will be able to:

- Understand concepts of correctional administration and different theories of Punishments.
- Get knowledge about different types of punishments and fines.
- Understand about Prison Management, Types of prisoners inside the prison.
- Understand unusual problems in Correctional Institutions like Homosexuality, Custodial relations, Prison Violence, etc.
- Understand Institutionalized and Non-Institutional form of treatment.

Subject name: PROJECT WORK

After undertaking the practicum, students will be able to:

- Knowledge from the program is applied to the development of Research Skill.
- Applying Particular Theoretical perspective to specific area of crime and Institutions of Crime control.
- Developing an in-depth dissertation on a specific area of theory or research.
- Designing research strategies into the understanding of Crime.

Subject name: ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY- VII

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

1. To compare and classify different types of Personality Disorders.
2. To exactly determine the symptoms and causes of Schizophrenia and Paranoia
3. To distinguish the symptoms and causes of different mood disorders.
4. To focus on different approaches of dealing with different brain disorders and other cognitive impairments.
5. Develop the skills of identifying the characteristics, causes and management for different disorders.

Subject name: COUNSELING PSYCHOLOGY- VII

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

- 1) Students emerge with an intermediate understanding of counselling psychology and the assessments involved in the field.
- 2) Students will be able to identify the major issues, concerns and special areas in the counselling process.
- 3) Students evaluate the pros and cons of various approaches to help them adopt the most conducive one for the counselling process.
- 4) Students will choose appropriate mental health provisions and familiarise themselves with respective ethical implications.

Subject name: INDUSTRIAL – ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY- VIII

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

1. Identify various training and development methods to enhance organizational effectiveness.
2. Critically examine interpersonal and communication skills for effective organizational functioning
3. Develop leadership skills and apply appropriate strategies for working in a team to accomplish organizational goals.
4. Students will apply stress management and wellness measures in organizational situations.

Subject name: Elements of Social Research (SOC 351)

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

1. Understand the social phenomena in social research
2. Study of research methods of understanding social reality
3. Exposure to the fundamentals various techniques in social research
4. Learn the methods of Social Research
5. Acquittance with the qualitative and quantive research

Subject name: Sociology of Tourism (SOC 352)

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

1. Create basic knowledge about tourism
2. To understand social aspects of tourism
3. To understand tourism as socio economic contributor
4. Motivation to choose career in tourism
5. To understand the impact on tourism

Subject name: Sociology of Marketing (SOC 353)

Upon completion of the course students should be able to:

1. Insight on Marketing Social relations and social behaviour
2. Knowledge on unfair marketing strategies and their effects
3. Functioning of marketing system and their effects
4. Career opportunities in social marketing